Declaration of Admission Integrity

At Calcutta International School we value and promote integrity in all facets, starting with the admission process.

In order to ensure that the integrity of our admission process is met, we ask the parents of all applicants to carefully review this declaration and uphold the processes and underlying principles contained within it.

In this way, we can achieve the very best for the children, by creating an environment built on fairness, trust, and openness.

I (/We), the applicant's parent(s):

Will not offer any member of the CIS community, including a Board Member, money or any other item of value in exchange for assistance with admissions.

Will not attempt to influence, threaten, harass, or place undue pressure on any member of the CIS community, including a Board Member, either directly or indirectly.

Will not misrepresent or deliberately exclude information in the application form.

Will not obtain or seek to obtain sample admissions tests or questions.

Will not obtain or seek to obtain admissions' tutoring from any CIS teacher or other staff member.

We understand that if the above mentioned guidance is flouted, the admission will be automatically cancelled & the student may be permanently disqualified from applying to CIS in future.

We have read the declaration of admission integrity and agree to abide by the same. We understand that all the information provided by us is subject to verification and if any information is found to be contrary to what we have submitted, we understand that our child's application and/or admission may be canceled or revoked.
